FOR YOU, I'M EVER HERE

Composer: Johannes Bjerregaard

Lyrics: Lynn Jackson

I know the thoughts I think toward you, thoughts of peace, and joy, and power.
As Mind I know you as My thought, I save you from every fowler.
My essence is within-without, no evil therefore fear,
For I am Mind and I am All.
I fill all space.
For you, I'm ever here.

I know the thoughts I feel toward you: love, and law, and beauty.
As Mind I know you as My child, I sustain your every duty.
My substance is intelligence, an expected end I give,
For I am Mind and I am Love.
I fill all space.
For you, I ever live.

I know the plans I have for you, of hope, and health, and harmony.
As Mind I know you as My form, immortal, one in constancy.
My nature is pure consciousness, unconfined, immortal, near.
For I am Mind and I am Soul.
I fill all space.
For you, I'm ever here.

No duality, no evil thought, no person, place, nor thing,
Can overthrow My government, My potency, your forever King!
My supremacy rules and reigns, My character stands supreme!
For I am Mind and I am Truth.
I fill all space.
For you, I'm ever here.
