O, newness of Life shine through me tonight,
Show my perfection as God's image right.
Christ is my refuge, my Savior, my light.
Newness of Life, shine through me tonight.

In upward progression and probation,
In following our meek Master's station,
With unswerving footprints, line upon line,
In one-ment with Spirit, we see the sign:
O, Soul supreme without the sad bier,
Life quickened, eternally here.

Jesus, our Master, came to this world,
Destroying error with Christ's power unfurled.
Despised and rejected he stayed his course,
Mastering hatred with his holy force.
In the tomb he communed in deepest prose,
Away from the grave he rose.

O, newness of Life shine through me tonight,
Show my perfection as God's image right.
Christ is my refuge, my Savior, my light.
Newness of Life shine through me tonight.

Death, where's thy sting, thy victory?
The Master has shown thy fallacy!
Man indestructible, perfect and pure –
Immortal, eternal, saved and now cured.
Life supreme, we are redeemed, --
The great facts of Life, felt and then seen!

The Magdalene sought him within the cave,
Saw the stone rolled away from the grave.

Jesus beside her asks her in kindness,
“Woman, who seekest thou in thy blindness?”
Her eyes open, her heart alive,
And she rejoices, “Rabboni!” “O, Rabboni!”

O, newness of Life shine through me tonight,
Show my perfection as God’s image right.
Christ is my refuge, my Savior, my light.
Newness of Life shine through me tonight.
Newness of Life shine through me tonight.
Newness of Life shine through me tonight.
